

Yuliia Davydenko

FULL-STACK WEB DEVELOPER

Hi, I'm Yuliia, a web developer from Ukraine, passionate about quality UX and making this planet better. With expertise in planning and a disciplined approach, I strive to create remarkable digital experiences. Leveraging a background in linguistics and diverse roles as an English teacher, copywriter, translator, and social media manager, I bring a unique perspective to web development. Selected among the top students for HYF Bootcamp, I'm currently working on my NextJS Final Project.
